Employment Opportunity

Position:

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Canadian Professional Golfers' Association
Acton, Ontario

Reporting to the Canadian PGA Board of Directors, through the President, the Executive Director will assist in setting the vision for the future and ensure that the goals are realized for the betterment of the membership.

The successful candidate will be someone experienced and knowledgeable about the issues, challenges and opportunities facing the Canadian PGA and the Canadian golf industry. The individual will be familiar with the membership of the Canadian PGA and skilled in creating and delivering services and programs that will enhance the value to each member in advancing their careers.

About the Canadian PGA:

Established in 1911 and the second oldest professional golf association in the world, the Canadian Professional Golfers' Association is a non-profit Association comprised of 3,600 golf professionals across the country. The Association's mandate is to develop, promote and support our members as experts in the game and business of golf and, in so doing, serve both its members' needs and those of the golfing public through the Association's varied programs and events.

The Association consists of the National Office located in Acton, Ontario and nine Zone Offices across the country.

In July, 2008 the National Board of Directors approved a Strategic Plan in order to identify the challenges and opportunities for the Association and its members. In the rapidly changing Canadian golf industry, we must ensure that the utmost value is provided to the members.

Mission Statement:

“The Canadian PGA develops, promotes and supports professionals in the game and business of golf.”

A bold and confident Vision will guide our path forward.

Within the context of our mandate, we have highlighted a vision that speaks to the current challenges we face and the intended impact of the initiatives we undertake. In particular, this vision statement incorporates our commitment to: “working together” “leadership” “benefit to members” “value in experience and education” and “respect.”

“To work effectively together to provide leadership in the game and business of golf for direct and measurable benefit to members.

Canadian PGA members are knowledgeable and competent and, as a result, their expertise is sought and well respected.”

We recognize this Vision as more than a simple statement of goal: Rather, it will define how we make decisions, how we treat each other and how we support our members in their careers within a changing golf industry and profession.

Our commitment to our members provides clarity of focus.

Over the years, the Canadian PGA has evolved to meet the changing needs of its members and stakeholders. The Canadian PGA’s stakeholders include our Zone and National Boards, our Zone and National staff, employers, industry partners and sponsors. At every decision-point, our flexibility has been grounded in our fundamental commitment to our members and stakeholders. This unwavering commitment continues to define our current focus.

Our commitment to our members and stakeholders

Collaborative leadership that advances our mission and vision

Integrity in decision-making

Accountability to provide value to members through excellence and innovation
